

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
October 11, 2009

Brothers and Sisters, this Sunday we hear another in a series of challenges from the Gospel of Mark. How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God, especially from those who have grown reliant on their wealth! Yet we also learn that all things are possible for God. So as we begin our celebration, let us pray for an ever-increasing reliance of God, whose love and care for us make all things possible.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday. United with the Catholics of the world at the Table of the Lord, we recommit ourselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. Our prayers and Eucharistic celebration next Sunday are directed in a special way toward our brothers and sisters throughout the world who are waiting to hear the joyous "Good News" of Jesus. Our offerings, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will support the work and witness of those who selflessly give up all for the sake of our Lord and His Gospel--the local priests, Religious and lay catechists who daily provide loving service to the poor and suffering of the Developing world.

A second collection will be taken next weekend.

PRO-LIFE CORNER If a pregnant woman is murdered, society wants to bring the perpetrator up on double-homicide charges. However, if that same woman were to abort her baby she would be invoking her alleged "freedom of choice." It's as if it's not really a baby unless she wants it to be. And that, of course, is appalling.

March for Life! Join adult & youth (8th -12th grade) from the Diocese of Saginaw and Dioceses across the state for the 2010 March fro Life Pilgrimage January 12-24 at Washington, D.C. marking the 37th anniversary of the Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision. Deadline is December 4, 2009. There are a few requirements that a person over 18 (before the trip) must meet before traveling with the group. For a list of requirements a flyer from the Diocese concerning March For Life! can be found in entrance of church.

'Happy Fall To You'

From one pumpkin to another!!

A woman was asked by a coworker, 'What is it like to be a Christian?'

The coworker replied, 'It is like being a pumpkin.' God picks you from the patch, brings you in, and washes all the dirt off of you. Then He cuts off the top and scoops out all the yucky stuff.

He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, and greed. Then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you to shine for all the world to see.'
